MORE THAN 1,000 RECENTLY PUBLISHED
BOOKS ARE ON DISPLAY AT UM LIBRARY

MISSOULA--

More than 1,000 books--hardbound and paperback volumes which have been published during the past year--are on display at the University of Montana Library.

The new publications cover a wide range of topics, with the elementary collection being composed of 341 books addressed to children, 34 volumes for teachers and 202 paperbacks dealing with 39 curriculum areas. A total of 312 books for junior and senior high school curriculum areas, 42 professional books and 225 paperbacks constitute the collection of secondary editions.

Geneva Van Horne, associate professor of library-media education at the University, said the books will be displayed until Aug. 15.

The collections are available to the public in the browsing area inside the entrance to the library.
